Roberts Tells How He Met Grace Lusk, Who Is On Trial for Murder.

MADE TRIPS TOGETHER

Tragedy of the Human Triangle Began in Revising a Book About Cattle.

WAUKEBHA, Win., May 18 .- Dr. David Roberts told how he first kissed Grace when he resumed the witness stand to-day at her trial for slaying his wife. It was at their first meeting alone in Miss Lusk's office in the Y W. C. A. after he had sought her help in correcting manuscript for his book Cattle Breeds and Origins."

'Did you kiss Miss Lusk or did she kias you?" Henry Lockney, attorney for the defense, demanded.

"I think, that I kissed Miss Lunk and "Did you kiss Miss Lusk more than Confused About Dates.

Roberts became confused regarding dates, locating Miss Lusk in Canmately the same time in July, and cour djourned until Monday morning with the witness still on the stand. Although often replying "I don't remember" to questions regarding details of his meetings with Miss Lusk, the story he told to-day was a repetition of the charge that the school teacher had raued him with threats of telling his Mife of their relations.

As a result, he said, he had told his wife himself that Miss Lusk was "infatuated" with him. This ied to the meeting of Miss Lusk and Mrs. Roberts at the former's home, which ended in the town: executive committee. Heber Crane, Wildwood: Joseph Parr, Jersey City, and Charles L. Farrell, Newark. In his annual address William Chambers of Vineland, the retiring president, said: "Banks must be in a position to step up on short notice and aid the Government in its war loan or certificates of indebtedness. It is not wise, neither is it good banking, nor is it patriotic, for banking institutions through injudicious loaning on non-consultate to become nonloaning on non-essentials to become non-liquid. We must learn to save. We must mortgage our future savings."
